HOCKEY

We are near the end of the midseason break with a few games few games this weekend and a full round of fixtures on 24th July. Both the ladies and mens 1st teams are well placed to come first in their leagues. The logs are able to be seen on the Union web page <http://www.wphockey.org.za/logs.html>

The team captains must please remember to put the match cards in the post box by the Tuesday after the game. There is a R50.00 fine for every late or missing card.

Remember the next Hockey run Happy Hour is on 30th July and will be run by the ladies 5ths and the mens 4ths. Please come down and have some fun as well as support the Hockey section.

A reminder that the Hockey Section awards dinner will be held on 18th September in the Oaks Room at Newlands. Your Captains will be selling tickets shortly.

We are still looking for people who would like to advertise around the astro. Please contact Allan Lacey if you know of anybody wanting to put up a board.

Good luck for the remainder of the season.

SQUASH

The entry form for this year's Club Championships and Club Handicap will be coming out shortly.

Our handicap event will begin August 23, with one round being played per week through to the final that will be held the same night as our club championship finals.

Our Club championships will be held in mid September, so keep your diaries clear!

Both tournaments cater for all playing levels, and are open to all WPCC members, even if you happen to play league for another club, so please enter. The bigger the draw, the better the tournament.

Both of these events will be organized by Mark Allen and if you entered last year you will be sent an entry form via email shortly. If you did not enter last year then please email Mark at markallensquash@gmail.com to make certain you are sent a form. Closing date for tournament entry for both events will be August 18, 2010.
